Symposium Sponsorship

Symposium on Cannabinoids and Pain Official Satellite Symposium of the 13th World Congress on Pain Intercontinental Hotel, Montreal, Canada August 28th, 2010

Dear Sponsor,

The Canadian Consortium for the Investigation of Cannabinoids (CCIC) is pleased to invite you to be a part of its 2010 international Symposium on Cannabinoids and Pain.

The Symposium on Cannabinoids and Pain is an Official Satellite Symposium of the 13th World Congress on Pain and will feature world-renowned experts and an international audience of over 100 health care professionals and researchers. The symposium will highlight current research in cannabinoid neuroscience, and clinical applications with a specific focus on existing and potential applications of cannabinoids in pain and symptom management.

Symposium Objectives:

- ✓ Understand recent developments in cannabinoid neuroscience;
- ✓ Be aware of International cannabinoid research initiatives;
- ✓ Appreciate potential clinical applications of cannabinoids in pain and symptom management
- ✓ Reflect on attitudes toward use of cannabinoids in clinical practice;
- ✓ Recognize areas of need for cannabinoid research and education.

Symposium Details and Agenda:

- Eight formal, 30-minute presentations by internationally renowned experts from Europe and North America, with moderated discussions.
- Four short presentations by industry representatives about cannabinoid projects and developments.
- Round-table discussion to reflect on the day's presentations and generate a direction for future research.
- A poster session and reception will conclude the symposium.
- A White Paper will be created from discussions throughout the day and the round-table discussion.
- The symposium will be video recorded and made available as an online CME activity.
